For our elected representatives, we pray for an unusual endowment of insight and wisdom as they wrestle with difficult issues in difficult times. May they seek you in every decision. Give to them a fresh vision and unity of purpose. Forgive us for the mistakes of the past, and may your light guide our steps of tomorrow. Now, may your richest blessings fall upon the great

State of Texas, her leaders, and her citizens. Thank you for the opportunities of this day—to lead, inspire, work together, and to follow your will. We offer this prayer in the name of Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The speaker recognized Representative R. Sheffield who introduced family members of the Honorable Ken Legler, speaking as follows:

Members, today we honor our former member of the Texas House and a member of my freshman class, Ken Legler. Ken served in the 81st and 82nd Legislatures with me and was sadly taken from us while serving his constituents back in District 144 on June 1, 2012. Ken was a very amazing man and a proud native of Pasadena, Texas, which he often would lovingly refer to as Pasa-"get down"-dena. Please welcome on the dais today Ken's wife, the Honorable Barbara Legler, who was elected to serve the remainder of Ken's term; one of his daughters, Krystina; his brother, Kip; and family friends, Tammy and Keith Nelson. Also joining us today in the gallery is Ken's sister-in-law, Linda; niece and nephews, Kaleb, Parker, and Addy.

Ken was an amazing guy, as you all know that served with Ken. You never had to ask twice where he stood. He was a man of his word, and someone that never forgot the importance of representing the folks who elected him to serve. Ken also had a great knack for knowing when to inject a little funny humor and break when we're here long, long nights. And as he did, as you remember, the day of sine die in 2011, he walked in this front door dressed as Colonel Sanders with a bucket in his hand and a cane in his hand and kind of broke it up for us. But he was a dear friend of mine and a great family man. He continues to this day to be very missed by all who were fortunate to know him.
